

Resource Guide

SRC Groups [srcenter]:

The Stonewall Coalition (StoneCo)

StoneCo is an organization of for all students who identify under the 'queer' LGBT umbrella and our allies. Our goal is to promote activism and education through collaboration with other student groups and maintain a sense of community and safety on campus. StoneCo meets weekly in the SRC. Email: [STONECO@grinnell.edu].

Coming Out Group (COG)

COG is a group aimed to provide a confidential SAFE SPACE for individuals approaching and questioning issues of sexual orientation, gender, identity, etc. Our goal is to be a resource for discussion, information and support while emphasizing on confidentiality. COG meetings are need-based and held outside the SRC, in locations only disclosed to those who will participate in them. For those who are interested email [COG@grinnell.edu] for more information

Queer People Of Color (QPOC)

QPOC aims to address issues of racial, ethnic and economic inequity within the queer establishment. For more information about becoming involved, please e-mail: [QPOC@grinnell.edu].

LMNOP and ABC

Lesbian Movie Night and Organized Procrastination (LMNOP) and All Boys Cinema (ABC) are movie nights hosted weekly in the SRC. Info? Email: [SRCENTER@grinnell.edu]

Transgender Action Group (TAG)

TAG meets weekly in the SRC to discuss issues of transgender, transsexual, genderqueer and other non-binary gender presentations and identities. Meetings are open to all trans and cis-gender individuals interested in learning more about gender and gender issues. Email: [TAG@grinnell.edu]

Queer Rainbow Super Team (QRST)

Queer Rainbow Super Team plays games and has fun! Sometimes outside, sometimes inside it is an all around raucous good time! Email: [QRST@grinnell.edu]

Spectrum

Spectrum is a discussion group working to educate ourselves and others about issues that fall outside of the gay/straight binary, including identities, discrimination, and visibility. Email: [SPECTRUM@grinnell.edu]

Feminist Action Coalition (FAC)

The Feminist Action Coalition (FAC) is Grinnell's student-run feminist organization. We are devoted to advocating on behalf of Grinnell's female-identified women, fighting oppression in all its forms, and having awesome feminist fun. In addition to weekly discussions about feminist issues, FAC organizes a number of popular events on campus, including the clothing-optional photo shoot, masturbation and consent workshops, Love Your Body Week, and Take Back the Night Week. Please feel free to email [FAC@grinnell.edu] for more information or to join our mailing list.

OUTreach

OUTreach works to connect a queer community here at Grinnell with a larger queer community, through networking with high school GSAs, other college students, alums, Grinnell community members, and statewide, national and international networks. If you are interested in getting involved, or are interested in starting or developing a GSA at your high school, please contact [OUTREACH@grinnell.edu].
